

Living the Cross Centered Life

Study Guide: Chapter 4 – The Divine Dilemma

Passage for Meditation: Job 9

1. How does the author often respond to the question, “How are you doing?” What does it often give him an opportunity to talk about with people? (59-60)

2. According to R. C. Sproul what do people seem to think is the most perplexing theological question and what does he say is actually “The most perplexing theological question”? (60-61)
 - a.

 - b.

3. Why are most people not surprised when they hear the words, “God loves you.” Of what must we gain an understanding before we can understand God’s true dilemma?

4. What contrast is drawn between God and Man in the descriptions given 1 Timothy 1:9-10 & 17. (62)

God	Man

5. Why is this contrast a dilemma for God? (62)

6. How must a holy God respond to sin? (63)

7. The Bible book of Job addresses the problem of human suffering. Even though Job was not being punished by God, what does he fear may be the reason for his suffering? (63)

8. How did Job describe his fears in Job 9:2-3? (63)

9. What longing did Job speak of Job 9:33-34? (64)

10. In the conflict between God and man who has been offended? (65)

11. In this conflict how is mankind oriented toward God? And how is God oriented toward man? (65)

12. How has Job's desperate cry been ultimately answered? (1 Tim 2:5)

Living the Cross Centered Life

Study Guide: Chapter 4 – The Divine Dilemma

Passage for Meditation: Job 9

1. How does the author often respond to the question, “How are you doing?” What does it often give him an opportunity to talk about with people? (59-60)

2. According to R. C. Sproul what do people seem to think is the most perplexing theological question and what does he say is actually “The most perplexing theological question”? (60-61)
 - a.

 - b.

3. Why are most people not surprised when they hear the words, “God loves you.” Of what must we gain an understanding before we can understand God’s true dilemma?

4. What contrast is drawn between God and Man in the descriptions given 1 Timothy 1:9-10 & 17. (62)

God	Man

5. Why is this contrast a dilemma for God? (62)

6. How must a holy God respond to sin? (63)

7. The Bible book of Job addresses the problem of human suffering. Even though Job was not being punished by God, what does he fear may be the reason for his suffering? (63)

8. How did Job describe his fears in Job 9:2-3? (63)

9. What longing did Job speak of Job 9:33-34? (64)

10. In the conflict between God and man who has been offended? (65)

11. In this conflict how is mankind oriented toward God? And how is God oriented toward man? (65)

12. How has Job's desperate cry been ultimately answered? (1 Tim 2:5)