

Living the Cross Centered Life

Study Guide: Chapter 10 – Assurance and Joy

Passage for Meditation: Nehemiah 8:8-12

1. To what does the author attribute Melody's joy and power, though she spends many days lying sick in bed and looking death in the eye? (104)
2. Of what does the gospel assure Christians? (105)
3. In what did Habakkuk find joy (3:18) when life did not make sense? (105)
4. What is the assured Christian's attitude toward suffering and sin? (105)
5. In Gal 2:20 how does Paul describe the assurance that drives his willingness to live a crucified life? (105-106)
6. What is significant about the word "loved" in Gal 2:20? (106)

7. Why, according to Sinclair Ferguson, do we lack assurance of His personal grace to us? (106)

8. What distractions turn us away from the cross? (106)

9. What two things can we do in our spiritual diet to maintain a fresh, sustaining conviction of His personal love? (107)

10. When we stop remembering the cross what do we typically start depending on? (107)

11. How do you “preach the gospel to yourself every day? (107)

12. What is the inevitable result of preaching the gospel to yourself? (108)

13. What do the following verses say about joy? (108)
  - a. Philippians 4:4 Joy is a _____.
  - b. Psalm 100:2 Joy is how I _____.
  - c. Nehemiah 8:10 Joy is my _____.
  - d. Luke 10:17-20 My primary joy is in the _____.

14. Complete the quotation, “Let the cross always be . . .”

Living the Cross Centered Life

Study Guide: Chapter 10 – Assurance and Joy

Passage for Meditation: Nehemiah 8:8-12

1. To what does the author attribute Melody's joy and power, though she spends many days lying sick in bed and looking death in the eye? (104)
2. Of what does the gospel assure Christians? (105)
3. In what did Habakkuk find joy (3:18) when life did not make sense? (105)
4. What is the assured Christian's attitude toward suffering and sin? (105)
5. In Gal 2:20 how does Paul describe the assurance that drives his willingness to live a crucified life? (105-106)
6. What is significant about the word "loved" in Gal 2:20? (106)

7. Why, according to Sinclair Ferguson, do we lack assurance of His personal grace to us? (106)

8. What distractions turn us away from the cross? (106)

9. What two things can we do in our spiritual diet to maintain a fresh, sustaining conviction of His personal love? (107)

10. When we stop remembering the cross what do we typically start depending on? (107)

11. How do you “preach the gospel to yourself every day? (107)

12. What is the inevitable result of preaching the gospel to yourself? (108)

13. What do the following verses say about joy? (108)
  - e. Philippians 4:4 Joy is a _____.

  - f. Psalm 100:2 Joy is how I _____.

  - g. Nehemiah 8:10 Joy is my _____.

  - h. Luke 10:17-20 My primary joy is in the _____.

14. Complete the quotation, “Let the cross always be . . .”