

Living the Cross Centered Life

Study Guide: Chapter 13 – Cross Centered Day

1. How does a person live a cross centered life? (132)
2. What must a person do to themselves every day rather than being led by our feelings or circumstances? (132-133)
3. What does Psalm 119:11 encourage us to do that will help keep the gospel at the center of our attention? (133) Name 3 practical suggestions to help do this effectively.
4. With what should our prayers begin in order to “pray the gospel”? (137)
5. With what should we ask God to bless us? (138)
6. Why should the gospel be woven throughout our prayers? (138)
7. What should we be looking for when we choose music to encourage a “cross centered day”? What warning does the author give about some “worship” music? (138)

8. What role should “remembering the past” play in a believer’s life? (140-141) How does Phil 3:14 encourage us to not stop there?
9. Fill in the blank. “I was once a _____.”
10. How should a person without a sordid past view his conversion? (141)
11. How does the author describe a well thought-out personal testimony? (141-142)
12. Complete the following quotation. “Never be content . . .”
13. In which Bible books can you camp out to gain a deeper understanding of the gospel? (142)
14. What tip does the author give for seeing the gospel in each passage in the Old and New Testaments? (143)
15. Which of the author’s recommended books sounds most interesting to you? (142-144)
16. Which empowering grace is necessary for us to understand and apply the truths of the gospel? (144-145)

Living the Cross Centered Life

Study Guide: Chapter 13 – Cross Centered Day

1. How does a person live a cross centered life? (132)
2. What must a person do to themselves every day rather than being led by our feelings or circumstances? (132-133)
3. What does Psalm 119:11 encourage us to do that will help keep the gospel at the center of our attention? (133) Name 3 practical suggestions to help do this effectively.
4. With what should our prayers begin in order to “pray the gospel”? (137)
5. With what should we ask God to bless us? (138)
6. Why should the gospel be woven throughout our prayers? (138)
7. What should we be looking for when we choose music to encourage a “cross centered day”? What warning does the author give about some “worship” music? (138)

8. What role should “remembering the past” play in a believer’s life? (140-141) How does Phil 3:14 encourage us to not stop there?
9. Fill in the blank. “I was once a _____.”
10. How should a person without a sordid past view his conversion? (141)
11. How does the author describe a well thought-out personal testimony? (141-142)
12. Complete the following quotation. “Never be content . . .”
13. In which Bible books can you camp out to gain a deeper understanding of the gospel? (142)
14. What tip does the author give for seeing the gospel in each passage in the Old and New Testaments? (143)
15. Which of the author’s recommended books sounds most interesting to you? (142-144)
16. Which empowering grace is necessary for us to understand and apply the truths of the gospel? (144-145)